Intro: F# G#m - E : | 4X
Verse #1:
В
                 B/E
 I once was a slave to darkness, sin, and shame
                      F#
          G#m
                                                 (B)
 Then You came, You came and set my heart free
В
                                B/E
 I once was blind and bound, with no hope to be found
          G#m
                                                      (to Pre-Chorus)
 Then You came, You came and set my heart free
       Pre-Chorus:
       G#m
                                              C#m7
        Now I'm living in Your freedom, No more chains around my heart
                  F#
                             F
        Now I'm living in freedom, Your freedom
     Chorus:
      В
                           F#
                                                     G#m
        You paid my ransom, You paid the price for my soul
                     F#
                                       B/E
       You made the way when You gave all
      В
                                                                G#m
       You left Your Throne above, You covered my sin with your blood
                     F#
       You made the way when You gave all
                 Interlude: F# G#m – E : | |
                                               2X
